

Seminar

Members have already received notice of the Annual General Meeting to be held on 13 June 2013 at the Hong Kong Club. Following the formal matters to be conducted at the AGM a seminar will be held, the details of which are set out below.

“The role of the expert witness – a QC’s perspective”

Philip Boulding, QC

Thursday, 13 June 2013

Based on over 30 years experience of working with expert witnesses Philip will be identifying the 'do's' and 'don'ts' so far as experts are concerned together with the way in which they can really bring 'added value' to a case and justify their 'corn'.

Speaker:

Philip Boulding QC was called to the Bar of England and Wales in 1979 and has been a member of Keating Chambers since 1980. He specialises in the fields of construction, engineering, technology law and related professional negligence work.
